TSW is one of the oldest aftermarket alloy wheel companies in the world. It was founded in the 1960's by a former Formula One racing driver, Eddie Keizan. TSW Alloy Wheels was founded back in the 1960's by a Formula One driver and has had a continuous involvement in motor sports ever since. Most of our custom wheels take their names from the world's great racing venues. TSW is headquartered in California and serves customers worldwide.
