After Effects stories pack for making a motivational sports promo, inspiring sport review, or a sport product promo. Tell about a fitness course or a coach and feature a sportsman or motivate your team to win before a big new project. It combines with any kind of sport. The pack includes 15 stories.

Illuminating yellow is the main color of this pack. Warm, uplifting and cheerful, it's associated with optimism, energy, and happiness. To intensify the message of the videos we created impressive typography with text backgrounds and fast minimal text animation.

The templates are very convenient and flexible in usage. You can apply them for quite different topics. Set your colors with Color Control, your speed of the video, insert your text, add your brand font and music and you'll have an intro with your own idea and atmosphere.
